As the longest serving senator in Michigan state history, Levin became a staunch supporter of the armed services through his work and leadership as Chairman and Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Armed Services.

During his time in Congress, Senator Levin was notably assigned to the Committee on Armed Services (Chairman), Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship and Select Committee on Intelligence (Ex officio).

You are about to embark on a challenging assignment and join a team committed to excellence. Come prepared with a full sea bag and fresh perspective. I look forward to you joining our team and working alongside you to prepare this ship to sail into harm's way.
